

Negeseuon

1. Dydd Iau : Gorffennaf 14eg
11.00 o'r gloch y bore

Bore da, Deian.,

Mae pawb yma
(yn enwedig Alis)
wedi penderfynu
y byddai'n syniad da
cynnal eisteddfod
heno.

Dw i ddim mor siwr.

Dw i ddim yn gallu
canu nac adrodd
na dawnsio chwaith.

Dim ond
datrys dirgelion
a dal drwgweithredwyr.

Beth allen i'i wneud
mewn eisteddfod, Deian?

Oes unrhyw syniadau
gyda ti?

Yn ddisgwylgar,

Dilwyn

2. Nos Iau : Gorffennaf 14eg
11.00 o'r gloch y nos

Noswaith dda, Deian.

Wel, am noson ddramatig!

1. Thursday: July 14th
11.00 o'clock a.m.

Good morning, Deian,

Everybody here
(especially Alis)
has decided that it would be a good idea to hold an eisteddfod
tonight.

I'm not so sure.

I can't sing or recite
or dance either.

Only
solve mysteries
and catch criminals.

What could I do
in an eisteddfod, Deian?

Do you have any ideas?

Yours in expectation,

Dilwyn

2. Thursday Evening : July 14th 11 o'clock p.m.

Good evening, Deian,

Well, what a dramatic evening!

A dw i ddim yn sôn am y perfformiadau
yn yr eisteddfod.

Roedd pawb yn y neuadd yn barod
ar gyfer yr eisteddfod, pawb wedi bod yn ymarfer trwy'r dydd
am oriau.
Lowri Bowen
y clown proffesiynol
o Ddowlais
oedd yn arwain y noson.

Daeth Esgob Annwyl, Brychan Ap Llywarch
a Llion Ap Miall
'mlân i berfformio
Yna tro Alis Angharad oedd hi.
Camodd hi i ganol y llwyfan.
Dechreuodd hi actio darn emosiynol iawn (actio hollol ansbaradigaethus).
Yna camodd hi i flaen y llwyfan ond wrth wneud
llithrodd ar groen banana oedd wedi'i osod yno gan ... gan bwy?

“Byddwch yn ofalus, Alis!”
gwaeddodd Lowri Bowen.

“Popeth yn iawn.
Dw i ddim wedi
torri dim byd.”
medde Alis Angharad.

Yna, yn sydyn,
pw y weles i
yn sleifio
oddi ar gefn y llwyfan
tu ôl i Alis
ond y person mewn gwisg gorila.

And I'm not talking about the performances
in the eisteddfod.

Everyone in the hall was ready
for the eisteddfod,
everyone had been practicing
all day
for hours.
Lowri Bowen,
the professional clown
from Dowlais,
was (the one) leading the evening.

Bishop Annwyl,
Brychan Ap Llywarch
and Llion Ap Miall
came forward to perform.
Then it was Alis Angharad's turn.
She stepped onto the middle of the stage.
She started acting
a very emotional part (damn fine acting).
Then she stepped to the front of the stage but as she did this she slipped on a banana skin which had been put there by .... by whom?

“Be careful, Alis!”
shouted Lowri Bowen.

“It's O.K.
I haven't broken anything”
said Alis Angharad.

Then, suddenly,
who did I see
slinking
off from the back of the stage behind Alis
but the person in the gorilla suit.

“Stopiwch!”
gwaeddes i.

Hedfan es i

ar draws yr ystafell
fel mellten
a neidio ar y person.

“Reit” medde fi.
“Dw i wedi dy ddal di
o’r diwedd.
Gawn ni weld nawr
pw y sy’n cuddio
o dan
y wisg gorila’ma.”

Mewn fflach
roedd y mwgwd bant.
“Iechydwr iaeth!”
medde fi
achos
pw y oedd y person
yn y siwt ond .....
Wel, gei di glywed
yr hanes i gyd
bore ‘fory.

Hwyl am y tro,

Dilwyn

“Stop!”
I shouted.

I flew

across the room
like lightning
and jumped on the person.

“Right” I said.
“I’ve caught you
at last.
We’ll see now
who’s hiding
under
this gorilla suit.”

In a flash
the mask was off.
“Heavens Above!”
I said
because who was the person
in the suit but ....
Well, you’ll hear
all the story
tomorrow morning.

Bye for now,

Dilwyn
